REFINERY EXCLUSION CLAUSE 1993
(REC 1993)

Notwithstanding anything contained in this contract to the contrary, all claims which arise out of onshore refineries, petrochemical, or chemical plants and any installations within their boundaries, even while under repair, maintenance, extension or modification, after the initial handing over to the operators, are excluded. This exclusion shall not apply to any insurance or reinsurance in respect of the construction, erection or installation of buildings, plant or other property (including contractors' plant and equipment used in connection therewith) prior to the initial handing over of such refineries, petrochemical or chemical plants to the operators.

For the purposes of this clause jetties, wharves, berths, piers and docks shall be deemed to be outside the boundaries mentioned above. However, no cover for liabilities arising out of the operations of jetties wharves, berths, piers and docks in respect of offshore refineries, petrochemical, or chemical plants and any installations within their boundaries shall be afforded hereunder.

Nevertheless claims (other than those liabilities in respect of offshore refineries, petrochemical or chemical plants and any installation within their boundaries even while under repair, maintenance, extension or modification after the initial handing over to the operators) in respect of the following shall not be excluded by this clause

- 1) facilities for the processing, treatment or separation of gas provided that they are outside the boundaries of the offshore refineries, petrochemical or chemical plants ;
- 2) any field processing.
