

International Marine Claims Conference

Presentation to IUMI

Introduction

- What is IMCC?
- The need for IMCC
- Objectives of IMCC
- Interface with the global marine market
- The future

What is IMCC?

- History
- Composition
- Members
- Objectives
- Programmes.

Why was IMCC needed?

- Claims oriented forum
- Focal point for international claims practitioners
- Matters of market and mutual interest
- Facilitate claims handling between international markets.

What are the objectives of IMCC

- To maintain/increase level of professionalism
- Unite markets in common practice
- Review claims trends and statistics
- Efficient solutions for modern claims procedures
- Training and education for current and future claims practitioners
- Review and consider new claims products eg the Hull Claims Protocol.

Interface with the global marine market

- Underwriters – IUMI
- Brokers
- P & I Clubs
- Shipowners' associations
- Surveyors
- Lawyers

The future - IMCC

- Embrace modern technology
- Provide cost effective claims solutions
- Recruitment needs - competent practitioners for the future
- Debate the future of marine claims handling

International Marine Claims Conference

Please visit IMCC website

www.marineclaimsconference.com