

ARTICLE 35 -Carrying vessels.

1. The rates of premium fixed otherwise only apply, In so far as concerns sea voyages, to shipments by steel, self-propelled vessels, classified as follows In one of the registers hereinafter-listed and which fall within the age groups and comply with the provisions set forth In the Additional clause No.58.

Bureau Veritas 1 3/3 ✕.

Lloyd d's Register 100 A. 1 ou B.S.

Américan Bureau of Shipping ✕A. I.

Germanischer Lloyd. ✕ 100 A 4

Registre de classification de l'U.R.S.S. ★P4C_ou KM ☉

Nippon Kaiji Kyokai NS ★

Registro italiano ★ 100A 1.1. Nav L.

Norske Veritas ✕1.A. 1

Polski Rejestr ★KM

provided always that these vessels are engaged in the trade for which they are classified.

2° Special premiums are to be quoted for all loading on vessels not falling within the scope of the provisions hereinbefore-set out, as well as for all loading on vessels affected by the Additional clause No.58.

3° Shipments on wooden vessels, sailing vessels, vessels with auxiliary motors and on towed or pushed barges are only covered subject to prior declaration and by special agreement.

DECEMBER 1st. 1978.

ADDITIONAL CLAUSE No.58 Carrying vessels.

(to be obligatorily Inserted In the French Marine Insurance Policy Cargo)

1° The provisions of paragraph 1 of Article 35 of the General Conditions apply to vessels which are less than 16 years old or which, being over 16 but under 26 years old, are used on regular lines. By "a vessel used on a regular line" shall be meant a vessel belonging to a shipowner and which, habitually and regularly placed by him at the disposal of shippers, follows set routes and at dates fixed and published in advance by the shipowner.

2° In accordance with the provisions set forth in paragraph 2° of Article 35 of the General Conditions, special premiums are to be quoted for all loading on :

a) all chartered vessels being 16 years old or over, even should they be in use on regular lines;

b) vessels sailing under the flags of the following countries: Cyprus, Greece, Honduras. Lebanon. Liberia, Panama, Singapore, Somalia, such special premium being in addition to those for age and the absence of classification;

c) vessels, whatever their age, of a gross displacement of less than 500 gross tons and on vessels when they are 16 years old or over, of a gross displacement of between 500 and 1,000 gross tons.

DECEMBER 1st. 1978.